

Slate June Completion Date For Key Recreation Projects

Top priority recreation facilities to be completed by June 30 of this year were outlined Tuesday night by the recreation commission.

Following a survey by Dee R. Van Nest, recreation director, and Otis Calhoun, public works director, the following facilities were slated for completion by the end of the fiscal year: War Memorial community center, Westlake, Frankfort, Marchbanks, Edgewood and Lincoln parks.

Work on four recreation buildings badly in need of repair—Vista Grande, Parkview, Peoria and Bellevue—will be held up pending a personal inspection of the structures by the commission.

The projects to be finished by June 30 will be financed by the $30,000 remaining in the parks and recreation budget for capital improvements.

Van Nest said the commission "anticipated" this amount would be enough to complete the projects outlined. Work on the facilities will start "within the next few weeks," he revealed.

The projects will be undertaken jointly by the recreation and public works departments.

Commissioners discussed the possibility of establishing Thornton beach as a city recreation site, but withheld any action pending determination of the land's status in the state parks system.

Remo C. Cumberti, 130 Westdale, appeared before the commissioners to speak on the "inadequate recreation facilities" for the Westlake area. The commission reiterated their projected program for that section and Cumberti expressed satisfaction, indicating he would be willing to cooperate with the commission in working for better recreation outlets for youngsters.

Application of Walter Gillies of the Our Lady of Perpetual Help Men's club to hire the community center on February 14 and March 14 for amateur boxing shows was approved.

$5 Windfall Due For Many DC Water Users

Several thousand Daly City residents may be $5 richer in a few months as a result of a plan tentatively approved by the council in study session Wednesday night.

Councilman Paul Hupf urged that all Daly City water users who have paid their water bills regularly for at least one year be reimbursed their $5 deposit paid at the time the water connection was made.

The city is currently holding a trust fund of $25,000 collected for water deposits.

Director of finance Jerome Scharfman said arrangements for return of the deposit money could be made without too much difficulty.

TRUSTEES CAN'T MUSTER QUORUM, CANCEL MEETING

Regular meeting of the Jefferson Elementary School District board of trustees was called off Wednesday night—enough members weren't available to make a quorum.

The meeting will be held instead next Friday night, according to Superintendent H. Z. Weibel. That afternoon, bids for Vista Mar Elementary School in Westlake will be opened for a third time. Trustees are expected to award the contract at the evening session.

Meanwhile, resigning trustee Henry Kraus has informed Weibel he will serve until April 1. Next step is for the county superintendent of schools to authorize the board to name a screening committee for a replacement.

Kraus, who two weeks ago said business commitments and "personal" reasons caused his decision, was scheduled to serve until July next year. He has been a trustee the past 31 months.

Mrs. Katherine Mullen, board chairman, is the only trustee coming up for re-election on May 17.

DC Widow Seeks $50,000 Damages In Mate's Death

A $50,000 damage suit has been filed by a Daly City widow against a Palo Alto woman driver who struck down and killed an aged pedestrian here on Christmas Eve.

Mrs. Walter E. Anglin, 242 Miriam street, filed suit in superior court against Mrs. Evelyn C. May, credit manager of a Palo Alto store.

Mrs. Anglin's husband, 73, was killed instantly on December 24 (Continued on Page 2)

Smith Withdraws Offer To Sell Farm Acreage; Reveals Tract Plans

Hugh Smith Jr. notified the city council by letter Wednesday night that he is withdrawing his offer to sell some 75 acres of Colma Farms acreage to the city for a fill and cover garbage disposal site.

Any chance of developing the site for fill and cover dumping was virtually eliminated last year when hundreds of residents of the nearby Winston Manor subdivision stormed the county supervisors with protest.

Smith said he was withdrawing the offer because he had "entered negotiations to develop the acreage as a residential subdivision."

COP, FIRE PERSONNEL FORM UNIT

Daly City police and firemen, left without representation when the Daly City Employees association was disbanded in favor of union affiliation, met Thursday night to elect officers for a new Daly City Police and Firemen's association.

Named to head the group was fire captain Frank Specht. Police sergeant Dave Hansen was elected vice president and Keith Schrock, a fireman, secretary-treasurer.

Filling the board of directors are Mel Hanson, fire captain, Charles Marshall, fireman, Roy Beecher, police lieutenant, and Les Bastedo, police officer.

Specht said purpose of the new group was to "provide us with some representation."

At the time the Daly City Employees association was chartered last year as an AFL-CIO affiliate, the council issued an edict prohibiting police and firemen from membership.

Specht said purpose of Thursday's meeting was to elect officers and draft bylaws.

Practically all Daly City police and firemen, with the exception of those on duty, turned out for the meeting as attendance was reported at 35.

"We're not a union," Specht declared, "but we're organized for our own betterment and for improved public relations between the police and firemen and other city departments."

Specht did not say whether the group would act as a collective bargaining unit for salaries, indicating only that, "We'll work to better our own conditions."

The group's next meeting is slated for February 12, at which time bylaws will be presented.

READY PETITION URGING VOTE ON SALES TAX

C.O.S.T. Committee Opposed to Sales Tax, today announced February 1 as target date for distribution of a county-wide petition which would place the sales tax issue on the county ballot as a charter amendment.

According to James Himmel, C.O.S.T. chairman, an amendment to the county charter will be sought which would require a two-thirds voter majority for passage of the tax. Should the measure pass, an election could then be called to vote on the tax itself.

Himmel said 12,000 signatures are needed to place the amendment on the ballot but indicated confidence that "we'll get 20,000 or 30,000."

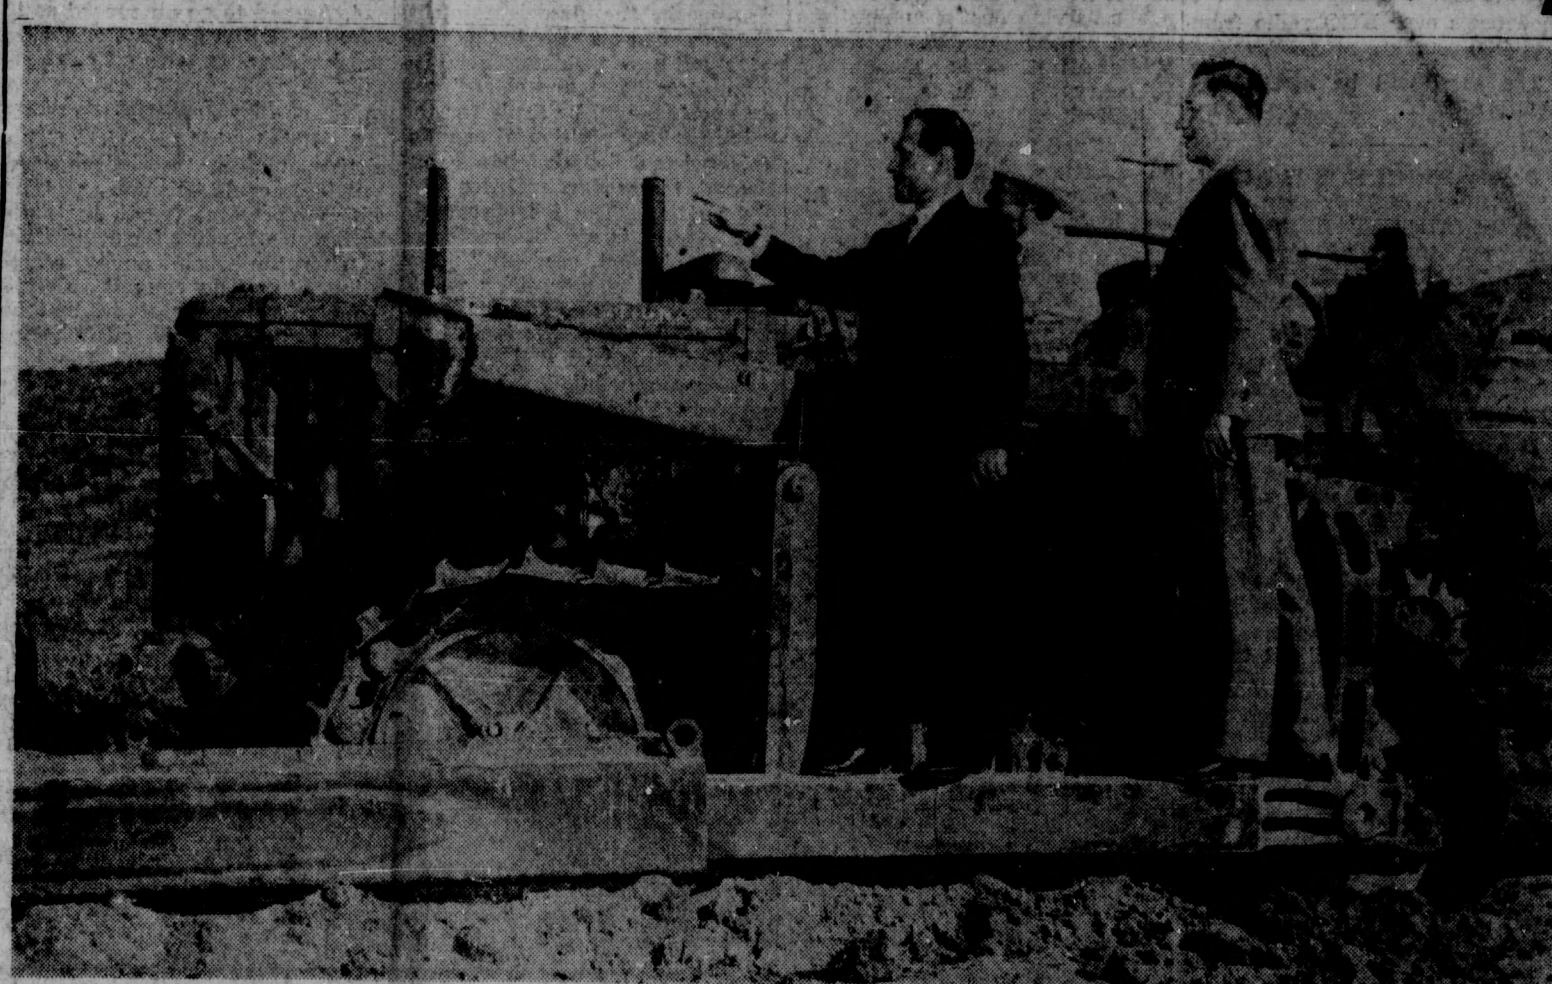

WESTLAKE PLEA FOR MORE COPS GOES OFF AGENDA

Westlake Improvement association's request for additional police protection in their area was stricken from the Monday night council agenda following study session of the council Wednesday.

Chief Roland Petrocchi told the council that the Westlake area had been split up into two beats and that adequate protection was offered.

The Westlake group's request to have scavengers pick up garbage cans at the side of the house, instead of the sidewalk, should be taken up with the Daly City Scavenger Co., the council ruled.

DC Drafts Own Dump Site Proposal

Daly City council Wednesday night came up with a counter strategy to South San Francisco's "say nothing" proposal on joint use of their tidelands fill and cover garbage site.

Received last week, Mayor Guido Rozzi's letter outlining Daly City's participation in the garbage operation was immediately branded as a complete denial of information the Daly City council had sought.

Councilman Sanford Vickers termed Rozzi's proposal "an evasion of the facts we wanted. There's nothing about costs of operation and how it would affect rates." Councilman Paul Hupf said Rozzi's letter was "pure illusion."

Unsuccessful in acquiring information they sought, Mayor Joseph Verducci suggested the council make up its own proposal to South San Francisco, outlining just what Daly City would be willing to offer for use of the site.

Sites will draw up the proposal after conference with the Daly City Scavenger Co.

"Conceptually there's still a possibility we might use the South San Francisco site," the mayor said. "This way at least we're doing all we can."

Hi Trustees To Mull Bond Date, State Aid

Date of a proposed spring bond issue and an estimate on the amount of state aid the district needs to cover its program the next five years will be key items on the agenda of Jefferson Union High trustees next Monday night.

Elwood Lehman, state representative, will confer with Superintendent Edward D. Morgan this Friday to firm the bond and state aid estimates.

Monday's board meeting begins at 7:30 p.m. in the superintendent's office, 375 South Mayfair, Room 214.

Four's A Crowd As City Ponders New Jitney Runs

Public opinion on the jitneys proposed new Stonestown and Westlake Palisades routes was "sampled" at a hearing before the council Wednesday night, but the cross-section of opinion was meager.

Only four citizens showed up, all of them speaking in favor of the Northgate Transit Co.'s new jitney routes.

The sparsely dotted council chambers also included four members of the transit firm, represented by George Ferris, and Jack Kendree of Henry Doelger, Builder, Inc., the only protestant against the new routes.

A letter lauding the jitney service, from Ruth M. Parris, 880 Southgate, was presented for the record.

Citizens urging that the jitneys be granted the new routes included: Margaret Toth, 109 Skyline drive; Clifford Ryan, 6 Fleetwood drive; Marie McManamon, 83 Fairlawn avenue; and Madeline Gray, 739 87th street.

Kendree maintained that the Stonestown route would only serve a limited number of people. He proposed instead that the jitneys travel up to Alemany to Junipero Serra and thence to 19th avenue, where riders could make connections with transportation for downtown areas.

Ferris declared that his company had had "innumerable" requests for Stonestown service. He also charged that seven months ago he had met with Kendree and the latter had urged a Stonestown route. "We went ahead with our application on their (Doelger's) supposed OK. Somebody in the Doelger organization must have changed their mind."

Ferris said his firm was negotiating to purchase some medium-sized buses to operate on the

Aid Pledged On B'moor Drain Plan

City councilmen, meeting in study session Wednesday, tentatively approved participating in construction of a 1500-foot concrete gutter to help alleviate Broadmoor drainage problems.

While the chief erosion problem from water and silt pouring off the Westmoor High school site is suffered by Broadmoor residents, source of the runoff is in Daly City.

Under a tentative agreement, Daly City and San Mateo county will each bear 40 per cent of the gutter construction costs, the Jefferson High School district 20 per cent.

The gutter would carry water from the high school site down Edgemoor road, where it would be diverted to Colma creek.

Total cost of the project will be about $2500, with the City's share (Continued on Page 2)

Five per cent pay raises for Daly City's more than 100 employees were approved unanimously at a special meeting of the personnel board Tuesday.

The board also called for immediate establishment of an assistant chief of police position, to be filled by an open examination, and a police captain, to be hired on a promotional basis (from members of the present department).

In addition, they recommended substantial pay increases for the police chief, fire chief and director of finance.

Their recommendations must go to the city council for approval but it will be only a token gesture, since the council has already upheld these proposals, made originally by City Manager Howard Stites on January 9.

The five per cent pay boost for employees brings to 7½ per cent the salary increase for city workers this year, since they were granted a 2½ per cent hike at budget time. The unbudgeted five per cent hike was necessitated because of the city's inability to attract qualified personnel under the present wage scale, Stites said earlier.

Cost $11,585
If the raises are made effective February 1, as expected, they will boost salary costs an additional $11,585 by the end of the fiscal year, June 30.

Five per cent pay boosts for all city employees, raises for three department heads and creation of assistant chief and captain positions in the police department were approved unanimously by the city council Wednesday night in informal study session. The recommendations came from the personnel board.

The pay hikes and new positions will come up for formal adoption Monday night and if approved, will take effect February 1.

All personnel board proposals were accepted, but Councilman Michael De Bernardi asked that the issue of hiring an assistant police chief be considered separately from other recommendations.

The assistant chief of police job, with a salary range of $542 to $628, will be filled on an open basis. The city plans to advertise for candidates throughout the nation.

The open status was approved unanimously, despite opposition of the newly-formed Daly City Police and Firemen's association, which met last week and voted in favor of making all city jobs promotional within individual departments.

Educational requirements were revised slightly by the board, however, at request of Police Chief Roland Petrocchi.

Two years added job experience may be substituted for a year of college, under the ruling change.

Three Years College
The assistant chief applicants must have at least three years of college training in criminology or police administration, two years (Continued on Page 2)

Mothers To March On Polio Thursday

Lighted porch lights will signify forthcoming aid to polio victims when Daly City-Colma women conduct their annual "Mothers March" next Thursday, January 31.

Mrs. Sanford Vickers, chairman for this area, urged that residents "give generously to make this drive as successful as it has been in the past."

Residents wishing to donate are asked to leave their porch lights on from 7 to 9 p.m. on the night the mothers march for polio.

Persons wishing to aid the march are asked to contact their nearest area chairman or Mrs. Vickers at PL 5-3550.

Local chairmen are:

Crocker Pershing PTA, Mrs. J. Phillips; OLPH Mothers' Guild, Mrs. M. Stanley; Colma PTA, Mrs. C. Cressy; Holy Angels Mothers' Guild, Mrs. W. Kahle; James L. Snell PTA, Mrs. F. Smith; Jefferson High School PTA, Mrs. J. Eckert; Our Lady of Mercy Mothers' Guild, Mrs. J. Duryea; Westlake PTA, Mrs. H. Kreling; Woodrow Wilson PTA, Mrs. H. Sawyer.

DINO DONATI and a gent of somewhat shorter stature had at it three times last week in a tussle at Westlake Joe's.

Donati, who was convicted of bookmaking last August and is on three years probation, put on a slugfest with the diminutive pugilist before some 50 persons at the popular restaurant-cocktail lounge.

So rough was the rhuhrab, it was reported that both combatants had to have their cuts and bruises tended to by a doctor next day.

Fortunately, for both of them, nobody called the cops.

KEN VENTURI demonstrated that his abilities are not only limited to golfing Thursday at the Daly City Chamber of Commerce "distinguished citizens" award night.

Lauded by emcee JACK KENDREE for making an unequalled debut in pro golf with his fifth place finish at the Crosby Open, Venturi observed, "You might call that a good start in professional golf, but believe me, I can't live on $350 a month."

Expected by many to go into the hem and haw routine, as many top athletes do when called upon to speak, Venturi chattered on for several minutes and displayed some off-the-cuff speaking.

Daly City recreation commission chairman ROBERT (BOBBY) COHN just received notice that his firm, West Coast Shows, will again be given the franchise to produce the midway entertainment at the State Fair August 28 to September 8.

Westlake Set For Auto Show

Plans for a completed for the first Auto Show and Sports Car Jamboree at Westlake Shopping Center, January 30, 31, February 1 and 2.

More than 100 American production cars and imported sports cars will be on display throughout the shopping center, while the three Bay Area sports car clubs are banding together to present a gymkhana as the highlight of the Saturday program.

Members of the Kings Highway, San Francisco and Square Wheel clubs of San Mateo, San Francisco and Marin counties are sponsoring the test for driving "well" and will man the course at Westlake. An expected entry list of better than 125 cars will compete for prizes, according to Bill Carillon, head of the San Francisco Sports Car club.

An added attraction will be the appearance of the Micro Midgits Bay Area club. One half the size of midgits racing cars, newest fad in the small car craze, the Micro Midgits will demonstrate agility and maneuverability during the Saturday program.

Some of the "plush" 1957 model American production cars seen at the recent San Francisco Auto Show will be displayed by local new car dealers at the Westlake show.

The cars will start rolling into Westlake Wednesday, January 30, and will remain on display until the close of the four-day event on Saturday. Sports cars will be located in shops throughout the center, while the 1957 American cars will be displayed in Westlake Court. Admission to the show is free.

MAKE WAY for a dandy! That's the word from Howard Duval as he warms up his Volkswagen Ghia, German-made auto, in preparation for Westlake's big Auto Show and Sports Car Jamboree next week. Decorating the popular car is Lorraine McLain, another dandy. The Ghia and approximately 100 other American and imported sports cars will be featured during the four-day exhibition. Admission is free.

COUNTY MAY HELP PAY DOCTORS FOR EMERGENCY CASES

A method of compensating doctors for treating indigent patients without funds was devised Friday at a meeting between Daly City and county officials.

Under the program, which will be presented to the board of supervisors, the doctor will first bill patients and, if unable to collect within 60 days, will turn the bills over to the county. The county will then make an effort to collect the charges and, if still unsuccessful, will pay the doctor 50 per cent of his bill or a minimum of $2.

On hand for the meeting were Howard Stites and Roland Petrochi, Daly City manager and police chief, respectively, Robert Stallings, county manager, Dr. Harold Chope, county health director, and Dr. L. A. Drees of Junipero Serra hospital in Colma.

Dr. Drees has several thousands of dollars in uncollected bills for handling Daly City emergency cases, Stites revealed.

"The proposal drafted is very fair and will solve a perplexing problem," Stites declared.

company has won the handsome assignment.

BOB MORENO, would-be organizer of a "Moonwatch" station for Daly City to help observe movement of the earth satellite when it is launched sometime this year, says his results to recruit volunteers are nil.

Jefferson High school asked for aspiring moonwatchers in the science classes. Result: one applicant. Nobody seems to care about such a minor project as launching the first man-made projectile into outer space.

Mayor JOSEPH VERDUCCI and HENRY DOELGER are scheduled to be on hand Saturday afternoon when Gateway Chevrolet airs a direct broadcast from their showrooms over KGO radio from 2 to 4:30 p.m.

The show will be handled by LES MALLOY.

Deputy Sheriff ROBERT BENASSINI, son of Daly City police sergeant AUGUST BENASSINI, has been suspended by Sheriff EARL WHITMORE for "dishonesty in performance of duty."

The suspension resulted, Whitmore said, from the disappearance of $40 from one of Benassini's prisoners.

Benassini, a deputy since 1953, has denied taking the money. He has retained attorney JAMES MARTIN MACINNIS and plans to fight the suspension.

The deputy claims that he found the prisoners $40 on the South San Francisco police department floor and returned with it to the county jail.

The sheriff says, however, that investigation proved Benassini had not returned to the police department at SSF.

SF LABORER FAILS SHOPLIFT ATTEMPT AT LOCAL MARKET

A 50-year-old San Francisco laborer failed in his attempt to shoplift four cartons of cigarettes from the Spotlite Market Monday afternoon.

Booked after he was nabbed in a citizen's arrest outside the store was Willie Jackson, who listed his address as 237 Third street.

George Glass, store manager, and Clanton Bendall, store detective, took Jackson into custody after they saw him put the cigarettes inside his overalls and walk out.

Jackson told officers he was out of work and intended to sell the cigarettes to get money for food. Judge Thomas L. Bocci set bail at $250 cash or $500 bond.

experience in an administrative position on a police department and a general knowledge of methods used in modern police administration.

The police captain position will pay a salary of from $468 to $542 and will be filled by one of the members of the present force. Lieut. Roy Beecher is considered best bet to win the post. The captain will be in charge of a shift in the "absence of higher authority" and assist in directing police department activities.

On earlier request by the council, the personnel board called for examinations on the new positions immediately.

Final date to apply for the assistant chief job will be March 1 and the examination will be held March 12.

Police captain deadline is February 14, with the examination scheduled for February 26.

Title Changes
The board also approved title changes in the fire department. The two men now serving as captains will have their nomenclature changed to "battalion chiefs" and six openings will be made for the lower ranking position of captain.

This was done, the board explained, to standardize titles with other cities. The job of captain will be what is now designated as "fire equipment operator." The board said the new titles would not affect duties or salaries.

Six captaincies have been budgeted for this year and examination was scheduled for all the posts on February 18.

Deadline for applying will be February 7.

The following salary increases for three department heads were recommended: police chief, from $628 to $692; fire chief, from $598 to $628; director of finance, from $598 to $659.

Two Drunk Drivers Must Pay $250 Fines

Judge Thomas L. Bocci gave two drunk drivers a choice of 30 days in county jail or $250 fines in municipal court Thursday.

Take Up Monday

City Attorney Frank Blum was expected to draw up a contract for the project to be considered at Monday's regular meeting.

President Bob Buchanan, and directors Jack Baker and Don Williams appeared at the meeting for the Broadmoor Property Owners association.

Other matters considered at Wednesday's study session which will come up for action Monday included:

1. Two-hour parking limit on Irvington, Brunswick, School and Liebig streets.

2. Awarding of bid for three new police cars. The council tentatively approved bid of Gateway Chevrolet.

3. Decided to hold over preliminary draft of a capital outlay fund ordinance, pending the sales tax meeting February 8.

4. Agreed to go on record as to whether Hilltop Cab Co. would receive six or seven taxi cab permits.

No Lobbyist

5. Ruled that Robert Cohn, chairman of the recreation commission, could serve as Daly City's representative in the state legislature to work for acquisition of Thornton beach as a city recreation site. The council rejected Cohn's request, however, that he be designated as the city's registered lobbyist.

6. Heard fiscal report from accountant Robert Hunter.

7. Considered hiring a "scanner" in Sacramento to report on legislation which would affect Daly City.

8. Debated use of excess funds in departmental salary accounts for other purposes, as proposed by Councilman Michael De Bernardi. All the other councilmen opposed the proposal, on the grounds that it would be "un-economical" and "poor budgetary procedure."

THE DOUBLE A MARKET at 5925 Mission holds its GRAND OPENING this weekend—so figure this for your shopping place! You'll find loads of off street parking and 6000 square feet of bargain packed, pastel pretty and modern plus Market that's been specially planned for your shopping convenience. . . . Naturally, there will be prizes and ice cream and balloons for children accompanied by their parents—but the best prizes will be such specialties as M.J.B. COFFEE at 79c a lb.—and Jay Klein's (meat department) prices on his Moffat's Manteca Choice Grade Beef!

Real Estate man J. F. DONNELLAN suffered a "double identity" shock recently when he was effusively greeted with these words from a lady realtor with an "I know EVERYBODY" complex: "SOOO good to see you Mr. SELMI!"

Ed and Sally Wright, owners of PORTABLE WELDING SERVICE at Hillside and Chester—across from COPPERWOOD LODGE, are just back from a wonderful week in Ensenada, Mexico. . . . Highlight of the trip for Ed was when he won a prize for catching the largest Yellow Tail of anyone on the fishing trip. (Prize was $11.00, but the glow of accomplishment is beyond price in this case.)

DALY CITY DRUG CO. rating has shot way up with a lot of round the town shoppers because they give S & H GREEN STAMPS with every purchase you make—and no quibbling!

COUNTY LINE MARKET owner Mr. Mirabella showed Tuesday that he well remembers the days when "do it yourself" was no slogan, but a necessity: when a customer raged about the price of haircuts, etc. . . . Mr. M. gave him a friendly hail from behind the meat department counter and said, "I'll give you a haircut—I have the clippers and all the stuff!"

Mrs. Ojakian of HARRY'S MARKET is happy to see the former Stewart Chevrolet used car lot—just across the street from Harry's—being refurbished and made ready for none other than GATEWAY CHEVROLET. . . . (If this firm keeps expanding—Daly City may be called Gateway to GATEWAY—rather than to the "Peninsula.")

No toll or mileage charge when you call the SUPERIOR APPLIANCE SERVICE at Elmwood 9-0904. . . . for servicing of your washer or dryer.

HEARING UNLIMITED office at 6788 Mission St. will give you a Free Examination and the opportunity to have not just a hearing aid, but HEARING which suits your own and unique needs! How? (Because owner Mr. Black carries absolutely no hearing aid makes or models in his office). How?—By testing your ears and yours alone, by coordinating the component parts of many makes; and, with the help of competent electronic engineers, building a hearing aid for you and you alone! (No charge, by the way, for cleaning and tone-up of any make aid you may already possess.)

SPOTELITE MARKET'S Lauren Cheda is up and around (but just) after a bout with flu—pleurisy—and plain "played out" that kept him in bed for over twelve days. . . . Good to have you back, Lauren!

GEORGE LAGOMARSINO & CO. continues to forge ahead in the business world with the addition of two new licenses: Life Insurance (which includes mortgage insurance) and Business Opportunities (sale of businesses)—and by forming an organization with J. RAGNI & SONS and B. J. PODONDI to build single residence homes. For your Real Estate or Insurance needs, keep the name GEORGE LAGOMARSINO & CO. in mind! New, strikingly modern offices are located at 6701 Mission St.—call Plaza 5-7700 and you'll find the trip worthwhile if only to see the Lagomarsino brother's collection of gorgeously executed and framed oil paintings from Spain!

For leather soled, foam cushioned comfort—cleverly styled and priced at just $5.99—see MOSHER'S SHOE STORE "Bare Back"—leather light cork wedges topped with metallic touched raffia noggayed for Spring. . . . New Schools Group Slates Second Meet Second meeting of the newly-formed citizens school improvement group will be held Monday night at 8 p.m. in the Westlake school multi-purpose room.

The organization, formed because of the "lack of interest" in the League for Better Schools, is temporarily headed by Thomas Noonan of Sterling Park.

The group is considering taking over the League for Better Schools organization, after amending certain major points in the bylaws.

The new citizens group has proposed that they actively back school board candidates after they have determined those who are qualified for office. The League merely selected candidates, but gave no active backing at the election.

Next Monday's meeting is open to the public, Noonan said.

CITE B'MOOR COP FOR CAPTURING 'MASKED BURGLAR'

Officer Charles E. Manning, who arrested Broadmoor's "masked burglar" at gunpoint on January 2, received a letter of commendation for the feat at the recent meeting of the Broadmoor Police Commission.

Manning single-handedly captured ex-convict Joseph Golden, 35, who is being held on charges of burglary and assault with a deadly weapon.

Tinted light: new beauty for your home and you

Choose one of these flattering colors. Or try them all—to accent the beauty of your home (and you). Wonderful things happen—for instance:

PINK: Flatters your complexion . . . brings out hidden beauty . . . makes lipstick, nail polish even more glamorous and exciting.

YELLOW: Fills a room with sunlight . . .

warm, intimate, gay . . . brings out the warm tones of brass, copper and wood.

GREEN: Brings the cool, green quiet of the forest inside your home. Freshens greens, blues and yellows.

BLUE: Adds airy new dimensions to rooms . . . makes you look more radiantly alive . . . more youthful in appearance.

P.S. Don't forget white bulbs—best for study lamps, reading or close visual work . . . best to bring out true colors. With P. G. and E.'s bargain rates for electricity you can have good light everywhere (white or tinted)! Why not stock up on light bulbs next time you shop?

SHOCKING APATHY ON MAJOR ISSUE

Wednesday night an issue of importance to every Daly City resident was aired at a public hearing in the council chambers.

This matter was the application of the Northgate Transit Co. to operate two new routes—one to Stonestown, the other to the Westlake Olympic and Palisades sections.

The jitneys, only a founding firm with barely enough assets to provide mediocre service in this area, now wants to spread thinner their physical properties for what they think is the Stonestown bonanza.

This should merit the attention of every user of their service.

And the some 2000 persons whom the jitney people claim have signed petitions urging the Stonestown route should likewise think the matter of some concern when taken before the body politic.

This matter of high import came before the council Wednesday. Purpose of the hearing was for the council to gain a determination of the public's reaction to the new routes.

The reaction: Four citizens showed up.

All of them spoke in favor of the new routes. All four of them. Four people—that's .00013 per cent of Daly City's population.

This could be interpreted as one of two things: That of those interested enough to show their faces, the feeling is unanimous that the jitneys should be granted the routes; or that need for the new routes is so infinitesimal it should be denied without further comment by the state public utilities commission.

But one comment that needs no determination is the shocking apathy of the public on matters that concern it vitally.

Proclamation

WHEREAS, great strides have been made in the combatting of poliomyelitis and its allied diseases; and

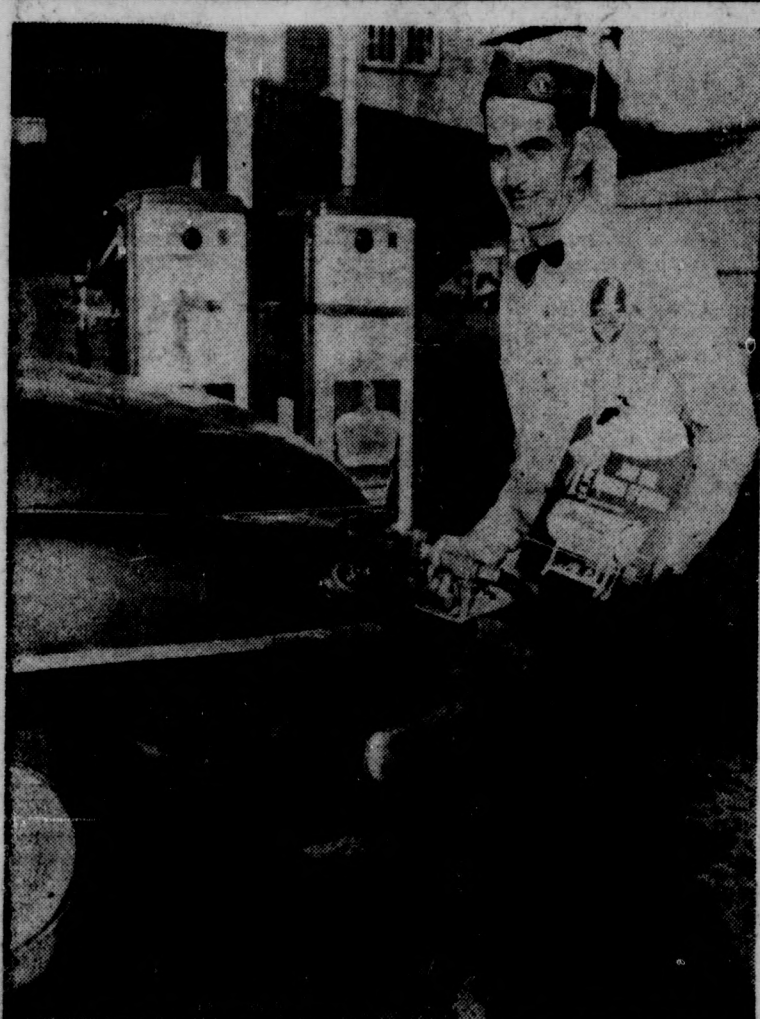

WHEREAS, such progress has been made only by the generous contributions of time and money by the citizens of the United States; and

WHEREAS, we are once again called upon to give aid to the eradication of these diseases;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JOSEPH J. VERDUCCI, as Mayor of the City of Daly City, do hereby proclaim Thursday night, January 31, 1957, as Mothers' March of Dimes Night. I call upon all the citizens of Daly City to aid these mothers by contributing to this necessary cause.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this 24th day of January, 1957.

JOSEPH J. VERDUCCI
Mayor of the City of Daly City

PUMPING gas for Polio this Sunday for the ninth consecutive year will be popular Joseph Lewkowitz, owner of the Daly City Super Service Station, 3356 San Jose Avenue. Assisted by fellow members of the Daly City-Colma Lions Club who will wash windshields and fill tires,

Joe again will donate five cents from every gallon of gas he sells Sunday to the Polio campaign. On hand for the fete will be a bevy of city and community leaders, headed by Mayor Joseph Verducci.

Parkmerced's 'Leading Lady' Bosses 45 'Men Of Note' For Fifth Season

When an attractive "leading lady" can boss around 45 men and still get results, that's real progress.

It's also the fortunate status of Mrs. Mable Jacobs, Parkmerced housewife, who's embarked on her fifth season as director of the "Men of Note," celebrated local male chorus.

Mrs. Jacobs, a North Dakota-born graduate of University of Washington's fine school of music, doesn't mind being outnumbered. That's been the case since she and husband Dale organized the group back in the spring of 1952. And thanks to her patience, persistence and professional touch, the "Men of Note" are what they are.

Widely Known

San Franciscans and Peninsulans need no introduction to the group. Armed with the motto, "We're serious about having fun with music," the "Men of Note" have done just that from the beginning. And in the process they've achieved acclaim as a top-flight, community-minded singing unit.

Members aren't professionals. They come from all walks of business and professional life. No auditions are held and singing experience is unnecessary. All they need have is a desire to sing, practice and work toward a common goal: recreation and cultural attainment as a group.

"This looks like our best season," enthused Mrs. Jacobs. "We lost about 10 members last year, but added 17 and we're stronger than ever. I suppose we could accommodate a total of 60 voices. About 50 would be an ideal number."

Many Numbers

The "Men of Note" have a repertoire of some 15 to 17 numbers. These include classical, popular, sacred and novelty selections. They usually make five or six public appearances during the spring of each year. Climaxing the slate is the group's annual concert, staged about the first of June. In three previous concerts at Aptos Jr. High and another at Lincoln High, the "Men of Note" attracted enthusiastic crowds.

Appearances by request have run the gamut from TV and radio stunts to church and vets' hospital programs. "We have no trouble filling our schedule," commented Mrs. Jacobs. "We keep plenty busy. The problem is to find enough time to prepare our programs."

Practice Site

Practice is held weekly on Monday nights from September to June. Meeting place is the Sunset Recreation Center, 29th and Lawton streets.

Mrs. Jacobs, conducting in the finest professional tradition, wields the baton for four-part harmony. Voice groups consist of bass, baritone, and first and second tenors. Delmar Severy, music instructor at Herbert Hoover Jr. High, is piano accompanist.

Typical selections are "Sweet Kentucky Babe," "Without A Song," "Were You There," "The Lord's Prayer," "Laudamus," "Halls Of Ivy," "To A Lady," et cetera.

Occasionally the "Men of Note" add a feature soloist for their annual concert. These have included Miss Donna Jean Petersen of the San Francisco Opera Chorus. In other performances, the group's quartet, "The Noted Four," share the spotlight.

Far And Wide

Most of the "Men of Note" are San Franciscans. Several come from as far as Millbrae, Sharp Park, Orinda and Westlake to participate diligently in the group's activities.

Age is no barrier in the "Men of Note" organization. Youngest singer is 19, oldest in approaching 70 summers.

The roster is dotted with many distinguished gents. Only four charter members remain from the original group as of June, 1952. They're Jack Carli, current president of the unit, a telephone company employee; Buzz Schultz, insurance man; Richard W. Thomas, Pedro Valley entomologist, and Jacobs, Director of Personnel for the Red Cross in the Western states.

Varied Occupations

Other noteworthy members are Donald C. Machado, former member of the West Point choir, now stationed at Presidio; Howard Chapman, automobile mogul; Morris M. Dow, deputy district attorney of San Francisco; Edgar A. McCoy, War Memorial Building custodian; Joe Sprinz, former San Francisco Seal, an investigator for the district attorney in San Francisco; Charles A. Wallgren, scout for the Boston Red Sox, and C. L. "Bobb" Miller, YMCA director.

Carl's fellow officers for the '56-'57 season are: Thomas G. Mallen, vice president, publicity; Chapman, vice president, membership; Frank G. Beukers, secretary, and William D. McLaughlin, treasurer.

Other "Men of Note" are: Gaylord A. Ball, Arthur F. Bensen, Sidney Bronstein, Leo J. Champagne, Josiah Chase, Regé Chisholm, Hugh DeFrancis, Eugene F. Driscoll, Ron Fahy, Horace Frem, Roland Fuller, Walt Griffiths, Mark Haas, Guy Harler, W. L. Herrera, Joseph E. Jencsa, William Johnson, Gil Kaeding, Robert Manseau, Hamilton C. Martins, Paul M. McCaskill, Lloyd J. Meussdorffer, Rens Mezera, Jack Myers, Jimmy Neely, Tom Northern, James Sanders, Elmer F. Stewart, Riley J. Tanner and Oliver Thompson.

State Rules On 11 Local Drivers

Eleven local drivers have been affected by recent rulings of the California Department of Motor Vehicles.

Revocation of license was ordered for George Villalba, 118 Wyandotte avenue.

The state suspended the licenses of: Andrew J. Albright, 12 Price street; Lydia B. Beltrano, 984 Alta Vista, Pedro Valley; Stephen Biedove, 75 Hillcrest drive; Ballard E. Rowland, 688 Florence street, and Eduardo A. Salaverria, 176 School street.

Placed on probation were: Leslie R. Balestra, 466 E. street; George R. Davis Jr., 401 Irvington street, and James E. Jones, 363 Santa Barbara avenue.

PREDICTING the biggest season yet for the renowned "Men of Note" male chorus are Mr. and Mrs. Dale Jacobs, Parkmerced couple who organized the group back in 1952. Mrs. Jacobs is the "leading lady," directing the 45-man organization.

She and her husband worked with several noted choral groups in Seattle when they were students at the University of Washington. Persons interested in joining the "Men of Note" should call the Jacobs at JU 4-8135.

DC's Versatile Lee Holden Moving Up N'tl. Ladder

Disc jockey, recording artist, song-writer, TV and radio personality.

These jobs attest to the abilities of Daly City's Lee Holden, a Kansas-born performer who's on the gravy train after many years of learning the ropes.

Holden, who lives with his family at 538 Bellevue, is one of California's most promising Western specialists. And his records are beginning to attract a nation-wide audience.

Busy Slate

Lee's schedule is a busy one. He's disc jockey for a daily afternoon show on Station KEEN in San Jose. On Saturday nights you'll find him as feature artist on the "Biggie Jamboree," KGO-TV. He also has appeared on the "California Hayride" video show and other cowboy programs.

LEE HOLDEN
... fame mounts

Coming to California about 20 years ago, Lee lived in South San Francisco before moving here. His big break came after taking Spanish guitar and singing lessons at deLeon's Music Studio, 6789 Mission street. Owner Manuel P. deLeon liked Lee's unusual style and immediately set the wheels in motion. He introduced Holden to Tom Spinoza, president of Cavalier Records, same company that vaulted Rusty Draper to fame.

Quick Contract

Spinoza wasted no time signing Lee. Holden's first platters were "Lady Luck" and "Two Evil Eyes." He followed these with "Putting On The Style" and "Pocatello Idaho."

Since then, Lee has hit the jackpot. On a recent trip to Nashville for the National Disc Jockeys Convention and the 31st anniversary of the Grand Old Opry, he inked a recording contract with Delta Records. At the same time, he sold two of his tunes to the Tree Publishing Company, producers of the smash hit, "Heartbreak Hotel."

Delta will soon release Holden's "That Second Mile" and "Weatherbeaten Heart."

Meanwhile, Lee is sitting pretty and still working hard. He knows he's got the formula to reach the top.

Out-Of-Town Gents Booked As 'Imbibers'

Daly City police added two more drunk arrests to their blotter Tuesday night as they booked a pair of out-of-town imbibers.

Cited were Andrew H. Schermerhorn, 44, a marine engineer from San Francisco, and George W. Howington, 31, Utah truck driver.

Schermerhorn was picked up at his brother's home, 279 Los Banos, for causing a disturbance. His bail was set at $50.

Howington, released on $25 bail and due in court next Tuesday, was nabbed at Crocker and Mission after he was reported arguing with a pedestrian.

News From Here & There

Village Notes

By Gwin Mitchell

PL 5-0679

We have made a discovery this week, due to the demands of a man's working hours. We have discovered what a gladdening thing it can be to open the front door and have a minute to stand in a quiet clean dawn, with moon and stars still at home in the darker west, and the street lights below the mountain all the brighter for not really being needed. It is at once a moment of stimulation and humility, assurance and hope. We are glad to have it.

With all the other Villagers who have shared a minute in the life of young Ronnie Stern, we too are saddened by the news of his death. The boy, stricken with leukemia for about a year's time, had made many friends, and continued through that time to be an active member of Pack 84, winning the required achievement awards along with the other boys. Even though the Sterns have been living farther down the Peninsula, Ronnie will always be counted as a Villager by those who remember and miss him.

Help for others, stricken with polio and needing care, is, as always, the purpose of the March of Dimes. Mothers of the community will be marching, on Thursday, January 31, not on January 29 as we previously reported. Please turn on your porch lights so that they will know you want to contribute. You can do more than that—volunteer to march. There is a tremendous area to be covered, and people are urgently needed. Call Mrs. Fred Smith, PL 5-8648, and tell her you, too, will help.

Twin Valentines
For the first time, we can write about a baby shower for expected twins! The event was held in honor of Pat Stocklagger of Ellis, who expects a pair of Valentines, and was held at Helen Kolb's home across the street, with Helen and Betty Nagy as hostesses. All the gifts came double, and filled a basinet full. Colors predominating were green and yellow. Most show-ers seem to go this way; that happened to pink and blue? Guests were Gloria Cauchi, Ruth Childers, Irene Ralph, Betty Hyndman, Doris Chaives, Lillian Crawford, Ellie Stocklagger, Pearl Steinecpher, Gladys Bernal, Ann Menn, Virginia Garretty, Edith Coley, and Isabelle Rodriguez. Word is that Blum's miniature Danish pastries were the refreshment piece de resistance. Yum!

There were some birthday parties around and about. Thornhill was the scene of a luncheon party for Ann Liska, newly aged 5, with guests Karen Heick, Cathy Johns, Jan Macklin, Julie Heick, and Ricky Gurtner enjoying themselves. After lunch, Ed Liska chaperoned his daughter and the whole troop on a tour through the aquarium, a rainy day substitute for the zoo.

Young man with a birthday was Kenny Tonnisson, who celebrated high, wide and handsome. In addition to a party at his schoolroom, he invited some 20 guests to share his 6th annual celebration at home on 89th street. The party had a carnival dinner theme, with each guest receiving tickets good for food at various small booths set up in the Tonnisson kitchen. Hot dogs, spaghetti, coke, and ice-cream-and-cake were available, and everybody partook generously. After dinner, there was a talent show, and mother Dorothy's ears are still ringing from various competitive renditions of "Hound Dog!" Guests in fine voice were Molly and Mike Johnson, Tenny and Laurie Rice, Terry Stevenson, Gregory Deal, Tony, Sue and Robin Frisch, Karl and Gary Fleischer, Danny, Phil and Bill Beck, Jimmy, Donny and Judy Frosh, and sister Beverly Tonnisson.

This and That
Ask Betty Arntz to tell you about that marble-topped coffee

table husband Ken is making for her. The Arntz garage on McArthur is a busy place. . . Charlotte Spruiell's home on Weshington, newly painted and arranged, is lovely. The kitchen is a divine pink. . . Martin Tonnisson is the new manager of the new Richfield station at 29th and San Jose. . . One Village resident kept wondering why she smelled smoke all the time in one room. She found out when her draperies burst into flame the other day just as she was going to correct the cause—the reflection on the draperies of sun from a magnifying mirror on the bureau. Take heed, all others! . . . Congratulations to Bill Beck, Dorothy Tonnisson and Aida Larsen for the magnificent display at the last PTA meeting. . . Ever noticed how nice the 600 block on Midway looks?

Young Harold Chivere of Maddux went out for dinner on his 10th birthday. He, his family, and guests had dinner at Lyle's in South San Francisco, complete with a very special cake. Guests were Kurt Hein, Jim Carpenter and Wanda Chivere. Harold also had a cake and celebration with Den 3 of Cub Pack 259.

Finally, after two postponements, Stephanie Tollini of 87th street got to have her birthday party, so she made up for lost time by having a most terrific one. Guests Nancy Swoverland, Shellie and Patty Alba, Shirley Robertson, Pamela Diotti and Sharon and Theresa Tollini thought so too, particularly as all the guests received gifts as well as the hosts. The birthday concerned was Stephanie's 7th, by the way.

At last someone has found a way to make ironing more endurable! Janet Rizzo, Lorraine Bjorkquist, Aileen Johnson and Gracia Krueger worked out an arrangement where two of the group ironed together in one house, and the other two in another, and everyone met for lunch. As any woman can tell you, company and conversation make a hot iron lighter and cooler.

Hillside PTA Lists Two New Committees

Hillside PTA this week announced the appointment of four members to serve on the unit's honorary life membership committee. Chosen were the Mesdames: Andrew Castle, Joseph Doyle, Don Leshner and Sanford Vickers.

Named to the nominating committee for the March election were the Mesdames: Stanley Bomba, Harry Bosberry, Joseph Doyle, Lawrence Sarubi and Fred Swickhardt.

Mrs. Charles Creasey, health and welfare chairman, urges everyone to cooperate in this year's Mothers' March for Polio by turning on their porch lights next Thursday.

Oklahoma A & M Lists DC Baking Student

Joseph Gregory of Daly City has continued his trade training by enrolling for the spring semester at Oklahoma A & M Tech.

Tech has been operating on a year-round basis since it was first opened in 1946. Recently Tech celebrated its tenth anniversary of operation.

The Okmulgee school offers 35 specialized trades in four major divisions: agriculture, industry, commerce and food trades. Gregory has pre-enrolled in the baking course.

There is a public fishing pier at Aquatic Park at the foot of San Francisco's Van Ness Avenue.

FINALIZING last minute details for Westlake Catholic Women's gala luncheon and fashion show to be held at the Fairmont Hotel on February 2

Home Economist Explains 'Best' School Lunches To Snell PTA

"One third of the day's nutrition should be contained in the school child's lunch," said Mrs. Geri Furst, home economist, when she addressed James L. Snell PTA last week.

"School lunches should be well balanced and attractive and can easily contain hot foods in thermos bottles, as well as salads, fruits, vegetables and milk puddings, in place of the standard sandwich," added Mrs. Furst.

Such helpful hints as putting a hotdog in a thermos of hot soup, how to prepare and wrap salads and puddings for the school lunch box, and many tips on new and different sandwich spreads were only a few items covered in Mrs. Furst's well received talk. In connection with nutrition for the growing child was Mrs. Leroy Larson's display of pamphlets and posters on food and meal preparation.

As a second feature of the program, William Beck introduced members of Cub Pack 259 and spoke on Cub Scout activities and how the boys move from the Cub Scouts into Boy Scouting. Beck made a special presentation of three Webelow awards to David Fletcher, Richard Cashdollar and Eric Knutla. There was also a display of various Cub Scout projects completed by Pack 259.

Business covered at the meeting included the election of a nominating committee, and voting for amendments to the by-laws. Mrs. Louis Manis was introduced as new treasurer.

Mrs. Fred Smith, community service chairman, announced that Snell PTA mothers would participate in the annual Mothers' March for the March of Dimes. Mothers will march on Thursday night, January 31, and will ring the doorbells of the homes where the porch lights are on. Those willing to help may contact Mrs. Smith at PL 5-8648.

Mrs. Allen Downey, music and drama chairman, announced that the San Francisco Players Guild, under the auspices of Jefferson School District PTA groups, will present "Aladdin" on Saturday, February 9, at 3 p.m. in Jefferson High School auditorium. Tickets are 35 cents and can be obtained from Mrs. Downey at 98 Palm-dale.

Younger Submits Bill To Benefit Rec Departments

Congressman J. Arthur Younger this week introduced a bill in the House of Representatives that will enable recreation departments of cities, counties and states to acquire surplus government property at no cost.

Younger took the action at the request of the San Mateo County Grand Jury and has notified Victor Gile of San Mateo, jury foreman, of his bill.

The step was hailed by recreation leaders of the county and throughout the state as a tremendous lift to recreation for citizens.

Ralph Shaw, San Mateo County Recreation Department chief, declared, "This is one of the greatest steps forward in the history of recreation. Congressman Younger will receive nationwide backing in his effort to pass this bill."

The bill would place recreation departments on the same footing as educational institutions in acquiring surplus government property. At present schools can secure property free and recreation departments can secure it for 50 per cent of its appraised valuation.

FOURTH GRADE MISS PEIRA

Our fourth grade class has been studying about the Solar System. We are learning to identify many of the constellations in the night sky, and we are looking forward to the many interesting activities that will evolve from our study of the stars.

SIXTH GRADE MRS. GOLDBERG

By Judy Reginelli

Recently our class went to the San Mateo Junior Museum. We saw all the animals and reptiles. After eating lunch, we went to the San Mateo Museum on the Baldwin campus. They had pictures of early California, and displays of many objects used in the early days of our state's development. Some of the things we saw were: an old fashioned sewing machine, a spinning wheel and some rifles.

This week we elected new class officers. They are: Kenneth Klassen, president; Joanne Price, secretary; Larry Ahuna, sergeant-at-arms, and Judy Reginelli, treasurer.

We are finishing our clay projects. Some students are putting

'Homemakers Holiday' Begins Friday For Westlake Women

"Homemakers Holiday," first of an eight-week series of programs for young Westlake wives, will open this Friday at the Henry Doelger Clubhouse.

Sponsored by the Westlake YWCA Office, the project will continue on successive Fridays the next two months from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

The schedule: Sewing Workshop, 9:30 to 11 a.m. Instruction and demonstrations will be given on basic sewing steps by an instructor from the Singer Sewing Machine Company. Individual help on garments also will be featured.

Slim and Trim, 11 a.m. to noon. Mrs. Mickey Wugdale will supervised exercises for improving posture, poise, grace and flexibility. Team games also will be offered. Education For Childbirth, 1 to 2:30 p.m. Expectant mothers may take this course, offered by Mrs. Lois Riboli, registered nurse. Exercises, training in relaxation, breathing, posture correction, and how to be comfortable during pregnancy will be the main topics. In addition, there will be one evening session for husbands.

A supervised playroom for children, ages two to five, will be available while mothers take part in the program.

For additional information, visit the Westlake YWCA Office, 375 South Mayfair, Room 272, or call PL 6-3488 for a free pamphlet.

Demo Women Slate 'Dimes March' Lunch

The March of Dimes will benefit from the luncheon which Democratic Women of San Mateo County will host at the Westlake home of Mrs. Merle Barton on January 30.

Among those participating will be Mesdames: Barney Millsaps, San Mateo; A. J. Maiorhoff, Redwood City; E. A. Brix, San Carlos; Max Wright, Burlingame; Alan Eisan, Sharp Park; Roger Johnson, Pacific Manor; Julian Cohn, Daly City; Otto Krawetz, Colma, and Charles Caryle, South San Francisco.

The March of Dimes luncheon is held each year as a tribute to the late President Franklin Roosevelt and his work in helping to conquer polio.

The Reverend J. Richard Friedline's topic this Sunday at the 10:55 a.m. worship service will be "The King And His Will." The choir will furnish special music.

Bible school opens at 9:30 a.m., with classes for all ages.

OLPH Seeks Items For Rummage Sale

Plans for Our Lady of Perpetual Help's Parish Rummage Sale on March 9 hit full gear this week as the group announced that pick-up of articles will begin immediately.

Persons wishing to donate should call PL 5-2377, DE 3-7029 or PL 5-4673, urged Bob Leindecker, general chairman.

OLPH Offers Classes For Non-Catholics

A series of instructions in Catholic beliefs and practices will be conducted by Father Norman Allen of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church every Thursday evening at 8:30 p.m., beginning January 31, in the school auditorium, 80 Wellington avenue.

"We want our non-Catholic friends and neighbors to know us as we really are and not as we are sometimes mistakenly represented. When our religious faith is better understood by those who do not share it, the result is mutual understanding and good will," Father Allen said.

He pointed out that meetings are very informal. There are no fees or collections, and no obligations of any kind. The question box permits those attending who do not care to ask questions to put them in writing without identifying themselves.

Theme for the rummage sale is "We Need Anything You Don't Want." The event will be held in the parish hall between the hours of 9 a.m. and 4 p.m., Leindecker reminded.

'Captains' In Polio Campaign

Captains for the Mothers' March in the Polio drive, sponsored in the Westlake area by Westlake-Olympic PTA, this week were appointed by Mrs. Herbert Kraling, health and welfare chairman.

"We hope to have a mother responsible for each block in Westlake," announced Mrs. Kraling. She urges all those who have not yet been contacted and who wish to volunteer to call the following Mesdames: James A.

Moses, Walter Baker, Dudley Shore, William Carrillo, B. H. Gane, Frank Kelechava, Ira Stout, Melville Prince, or Zelim Pellegrini, Jr.

As in the past, on the evening of January 31 between 7 and 8 p.m., porch lights should be left on at homes of persons who wish to donate.

Mrs. Sanford Vickers, Daly City's Polio campaign chairman, states that homeowners who have received folders in the mail from county headquarters may fill

Two For Tonight

By Leonore Browne

We have seen, with one exception, every production given by Abbott-Abrams at Theater Arts on Washington street. We feel this puts us in the position to say with some authority that "Dark of the Moon" is their best integrated presentation to date.

A tale of witchcraft in the Great Smokey Mountains, it tells of John the witch boy (Will Marchetti) who falls in love with Barbara Allen (Marilyn Roberts), a weak-willed mountain girl whose inability to say "no" is a constant source of worry to her mother (Dushanne von Lowenfeldt) and father (Wendell Gray).

If Barbara Allen remains true to him for a year, John will lose his status to witch, trading his life-span of 300 years and a giant eagle to ride to become human. Considering the ingrown community he has chosen to embrace, this seems a poor bargain, but John is happy with it, even though the mountain folk never take to him.

Fine Settings

This initial dislike grows until it reaches a paroxysm of hysteria on the last day of John's "probation" when the mountain people, led by Preacher Haggler (Craig Hampton) force Barbara Allen to break faith with her witch boy.

It is in the scenes on the mountain top where the witches meet that Robin Wagner and James McMillan's extraordinary settings and lighting are at their best. Here, too, John Graham and Patricia Toplian's care in handling the choreography shots to good advantage. Although we found some of the lines unintelligible, the cadence of the voices adds to the unearthly effect.

Large Cast

In strong contrast to this picture of life eerily poised between two worlds is the frenzied scene of Preacher Haggler's revival, where the power of light is based on the power of darkness. Hampton is particularly noteworthy as he leads his flock in their struggle to save Barb'ry Allen.

Occasionally, folk singer Nan Fowler emphasizes the grandeur of the words at the expense of clear diction, and Marilyn Roberts sometimes confuses a mountain girl doing what comes naturally with a small town floozy influenced by Hollywood's grade B minus starlets, but on the whole the large cast, there are twenty-five, are generally well suited to their roles, and Les Abbott handles them with a sure touch.

"Dark of the Moon" plays Thursdays through Sundays at 8:30 p.m.

Special Parking Site Costs Salesman $40

Parking his convertible overnight in a used car lot at 7401 Mission street proved costly for a Redwood City auto salesman here Saturday night.

When Frank Morrison returned to his car the next morning, all four hubcaps were gone. His loss amounted to $40.

Thief Gets Battery, Charger, Four Tires

A thief pried open the rear door of a truck in a used car lot at 7201 Mission street Monday night and made off with a battery charger, a battery and four tires.

Lester Morrison, car dealer, estimated his loss at $129.20.

Mrs. Cunningham Assumes Top Post With 17th CCPT

A Daly City housewife and mother added another to an already imposing list of PTA and other organizational duties by becoming director of organization, 17th District, CCPT, recently.

Mrs. Foriest Cunningham, already active in district PTA this year as hospitality chairman, accepted the new position following the resignation of Mrs. E. L. Gray, and will serve for the next year and a half as head of a department which includes the district office, honorary life membership, emblems and publications, Founder Day, magazines and mailing chairman.

In addition to her new job, Mrs. Cunningham is already serving as vice president and program chairman of Woodrow Wilson and Colma PTAs, and has just finished an extra task as chairman of the 17th District annual dinner meeting. Last year she served as district citizenship chairman, parliamentarian and hospitality chairman of Woodrow Wilson PTA, and chairman of the JESD PTA coordinating committee. Previous to that, she held the presidency of Woodrow Wilson PTA. She has also received an honorary life membership from that PTA in recognition for her work.

With her husband and son, Bill, Mrs. Cunningham lives at 188 East Vista, where she enjoys cooking, sewing, gardening and all the other things which go into keeping a home a happy place in which to live. She also finds time to be a member of the Eastern Star Crocker chapter, second vice president (membership) of Friends of the Library, and committee secretary for Cub Scout Pack 63. She has also been a Den Mother.

The Cunninghams are a Navy family, with Foriest having served 22½ years of service. He is now with the Standard Oil Company, Young Bill, at 10½, has covered quite a bit of ground himself in the Jefferson Elementary School district. Until this year, he was a Woodrow Wilson student; at the beginning of the year, he attended Jefferson Elementary school, then recently moved with his class to Benjamin Franklin school. That will add the James L. Snell PTA to a list of units fortunate enough to have him as a member.

DC Housewife Reports Theft Of $60 Watch

Theft of a $60 watch from her bedroom three weeks ago was reported to police Monday by Mrs. Lillian Stratford, 1075 Hanover street.

The housewife said she noticed her house had been raided on January 4, but didn't discover anything missing at the time. The burglar entered through an unlocked back door, according to the police report.

WESTMOOR FROSH HOLD CLASS DANCE THIS FRIDAY NIGHT

"Future Frolics" is the theme of Westmoor High's first annual freshman class dance this Friday in the Jefferson cafeteria.

Music will be provided by records. Cost of admission is 40 cents for stags and 60 cents for couples.

Preceding the dance will be a basketball doubleheader between Westmoor and Cubberley of Palo Alto. First game starts at 7 p.m. in the Jeff gym.

Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy, police officer Charles Terry, Jack Kendree, master of ceremonies, Melvin Hanson, fire captain, Ken Venturi, one of the country's top amateur golfers who recently turned professional, and Peter Markovich, executive secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. Kennedy's award was for his charitable work over the years; Terry won distinction for his heroic rescue of a boy from the surf; Hanson for saving a man's life through artificial respiration; Venturi for his golfing explains; and Markovich for his many humanitarian projects. Markovich's award was not announced prior to the banquet and came as a surprise to the recipient.

Laura Mae Pidcock Becomes Mrs. Feccia

Miss Laura Mae Pidcock of Linda Mar became the bride of Ronald Lawrence Feccia of Daly City on January 4 in a ceremony officiated by the Reverend Roy Milan at Westlake Community Baptist church.

A Westmoor High student, the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Andersen, 976 Anza drive. The groom works for Henry Doelger Builder Inc. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Abe Rosenstein, 1078 South Mayfair in Westlake.

The bride wore a white wedding gown trimmed with chantilly lace. For flowers she had carnations and white orchids. Her veil was shoulder length.

Miss Margaret Maymuni, long-time friend of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a pink ankle length gown and carried pink carnations.

Best man duties were performed by Charles J. Feccia Jr., the groom's brother. Ushers were Robert Gregory and John Blake, both of Westlake.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Earl Pidcock of Mountain View.

Special guests included Daniel J. Feccia, the groom's brother from Castle Air Force Base, and Mrs. Charles Stubbles and son, American Fork, Utah.

A crowd of 60 friends attended the reception held at the groom's home.

The bride's going away costume for a short honeymoon in Carmel was a white sheath dress with three quarter sleeves and boat neck collar, and white shoes and black coat.

The couple are residing temporarily at the Rosenstein home in Westlake.

Lost Anything, Folks? Library May Have It

Have you lost anything lately, particularly articles of children's clothing? If so, please contact the Daly City Public Library or its Westlake-Broadmoor Branch. An amazing quantity of lost and unclaimed articles has accumulated at the libraries, and the staff is eager to have them called for at the earliest possible time. Be sure to try your public library for lost articles as well as for books and magazines!

Something For Everyone

The oceans of the world have received increasing attention from scientists and explorers in recent years, and numerous books describing their discoveries and adventures are available at the Daly City Public Library and its Westlake-Broadmoor Branch.

A recent book, Georges Houot's 2,000 FATHOMS DOWN, is an account of the French bathyscaphe FNRS3, which in 1954 made the deepest underwater descent ever achieved by man. The author tells of the three years of work that went into her successful dives.

Otis Barton, the inventor of the bathyscaphe, in WORLD BENEATH THE SEA, tells of his years of undersea exploration in Atlantic, Pacific and Caribbean waters, including a record dive in 1949. Other exciting accounts of undersea discovery are Philippe Dole's THE UNDERSEA ADVENTURE, Hans Hass' MEN AND SHARKS, and THE SILENT WORLD, by Jacques Cousteau, one of the inventors of the aqua-

Eugene Clark's LADY WITH A SPEAR describes the author's adventures exploring the tropical waters of three oceans in search of rare and bizarre fish, while James Dugan's MAN UNDER THE SEA presents the history of underwater exploration from earliest times to the present.

Two of the most recent books dealing with life under the sea are Arthur C. Clarke's THE COAST OF CORAL, concerning the author's underwater photography expedition to the Great Barrier Reef of Australia, and Auguste Piccard's EARTH, SKY, AND SEA. The latter is an account of the famous scientist's balloon ascents as well as his undersea adventures.

The man who really started the whole field of underwater exploration was William Beebe, whose HALF MILE DOWN, a classic in its field, is still popular with adults and young people as well. And Rachel Carson, who began the current rage for underwater literature, is still widely read; her earliest book, UNDER THE SEA AROUND US, are almost equally popular with library borrowers.

The library also has books on the related subjects of skin diving and marine life. To reserve any of the books mentioned above, or for further information about the library and its services, stop at the Daly City Public Library, 6351 Mission street, or the Westlake-Broadmoor Branch Library, 34 Park Plaza drive. Remember, your public library has something for everyone!

Sheridan PTA Joins March Against Polio

Sheridan PTA will join the Mothers' March against Polio on the night of January 31, from 7 to 8 o'clock. People wishing to donate should leave their porch lights on.

Mrs. Robert Anderson, area chairman for Sheridan, Jose Ortega, St. Michael's and St. Thomas More schools, indicated that a large group of mothers have announced they will participate.

NURSERY SCHOOL OFFERS TOTS COMPANIONSHIP

Any weekday morning, when public schools are in session, a group of up to 30 children plays in a sunny playground at the Broadmoor Presbyterian church on 87th street. They are the children who attend the Broadmoor Nursery school, a non-sectarian school run by the church, and presided over by Mrs. Jessie H. Glasse.

With the assistance of a trained staff, Mrs. Glasse has maintained the state-licensed school's objectives of offering a child companionship with others of his own age, so that he may gradually adapt himself to group living and so go more happily on to kindergarten. This adaptation is carried on through music, art, painting, dancing, stories and play, both in the playground and mentioned, and in the large well-equipped room in the church's education building.

The school was started by Mrs. Glasse in September, 1949, and occupied the old "temporary" church building until that was removed in September, 1956, and the school moved into its present quarters.

The child who attends this nursery school may drive up to the door with his mother, or he may be one of a congenial carload of youngsters whom Mrs. Glasse transports back and forth in her station wagon each day. Once at school, he may share the equipment in the Sandy area of the sheltered playground, or ride a tricycle or wagon on the hard-top section.

Indoors, he can find a selection of toys which will keep any child busy, and the morning goes by, complete with "juice time," a rest, songs, and rhythm games, and special projects at special times of the year, like Christmas. Since the room is designed for child use and enjoyment, when it is time to go home each child can easily reach his hat and coat on his own hook, put them on, and be ready for a ride home in a familiar wood-paneled station wagon.

The school will take part in the observances of Nursery School Week February 4-9.

FORMER ENGINEER 'GIVES UP' SEWER PLANS FOR $675

Edwin Smith, former city engineer, offered Monday to "relinquish" his plans for a North San Mateo County Sanitation district sewer outfall line, with the stipulation that the district pay him $675 for work already completed.

The district agreed to pay that amount, since directors want the planning done by their own engineer, C. L. White.

In other action the directors: 1. Approved agreement for providing sewer facilities to Japanese Benevolent society of California.

2. Decided to purchase truck for sludge disposal.

3. Held over their request for easement on Henry Doelger property on Southgate where Doelger replaced a temporary sewer line with a permanent one, following lowering of the Southgate "hump."

Toyland Nursery Plans Open House For National 'Week'

Toyland Nursery school is busy planning an open house from February 4 to 9 in conjunction with national Nursery School week.

Toyland had its beginning on November, 1948, with an enrollment of two one-year-old babies. The school now enrolls 54 children with a new unit being planned exclusively for the two-year-old group.

The school opened at the American Legion hall in April, 1951, with six youngsters and now has an average daily attendance of 50.

Five full-time teachers, a cook, housekeeper, driver and director now staff the school, as compared with four personnel who started with the organization.

Teachers include Mrs. Florence Young, Mrs. Thelma Hamilton, Mrs. Ruth Hartman, Mrs. Janet Holdan, Mrs. Margaret Swedberg, Mrs. Dorothy Stone, cook, Mrs. Mariette Bundy, housekeeper, and Mrs. Bernice Andrieu, driver.

Mesdames Young, Hamilton and Grace Wilson, director, will attend the nursery school conference at Asilomar on February 1, 2 and 3, also a part of the nursery school week observances.

One of California's earliest settlers was John Sutter who obtained a land grant from Mexico and settled near Sacramento.

21 states report that about 3 out of 10 drivers in fatal accidents were violating a speed law, says the National Automobile Club.

ENGAGEMENT of Margaret Emily (Peggy) Sorenson to Loren J. Anderson was announced recently at a family gathering by Mr. and Mrs. John A. Sorenson of 30 Garden Grove drive. The bride-elect, a graduate of Jefferson High school, will graduate as a dental assistant from the College of San Mateo in June. The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Harriet Anderson of Palo Alto. He has served four years with the U. S. Air Force in Europe and is now majoring in economics at the College of San Mateo. No immediate plans have been made for the wedding.

Solon Launches 'Long Fight' For SM State College

A bill to establish a state college in San Mateo county was introduced in the State Legislature this week by Assemblyman Louis Francis of San Mateo. This bill was co-authored by Assemblyman Carl A. Britschgi of Redwood City.

In introducing the bill, Francis remarked, "Although there is not much chance to obtain passage of this bill at the present time, it is the beginning of a long fight for a state college which is desperately needed in San Mateo county."

Francis pointed out that during the 1955 session of the California Legislature bills were introduced to establish 19 new state colleges. None of these bills was enacted into law, but authorization was given at this session for a study of the needs for a state college in certain geographical areas of the state.

The county's population has increased between 1950 and 1955 at a rate almost twice that of the state as a whole. It is expected that the future growth will be equally rapid, but of particular interest is the fact that the number of high school graduates estimated to increase from 2300 in 1955-56 to 10,100 in 1970-71.

In spite of these findings, the liaison committee of the California State Board of Education and the Regents of the University of California concluded that if one or more state colleges were established in the East Bay Area, San Francisco State College should be able to absorb the future needs developing in San Mateo county.

Francis took issue with this report, claiming that qualified high school graduates are unable to obtain admission to the two state colleges in the adjacent counties because both are overcrowded and lack necessary classroom space and teacher personnel. "As a result, our high school graduates are deprived of equal opportunities for higher education on a junior college level," he said.

Builders Launch Legal Battle On Division Of Land

The legal battle between builders George McKean and Michael Callan over division of lands in the Zane estate opened last Wednesday in superior court and continued through Friday.

The partition suit trial in Judge Louis B. Dematteis court is scheduled to resume again next Monday.

Callan is protesting the court-appointed referees report, which granted him and his brother, Tom, title to 12.6 acres of property on Edgemoor road and 100 feet of commercial land on Junipero Serra. The land division was originally settled between McKean and Callan with the flip of a coin. But a disagreement over grading of the adjoining lands voided the informal settlement.

An order restraining McKean from further grading on his St. Francis Heights subdivision pending outcome of the trial was issued by the superior court on January 10.

Under the restraining order, McKean was ordered to stop and give proper identification at an accident scene lodged against a San Francisco controller in Westlake Sunday night.

Herbert A. Kaase, 44, was arrested by officers after they noticed another driver chasing his car on Alameda.

Norman Seal, 378 Milagra drive, Sharp Park, said he took off after Kaase when the latter failed to stop after colliding with a car driven by Douglas L. Barker, San Francisco, a few minutes earlier on the Coast highway near Skyline.

Police learned that earlier in the day Asbell had called a friend, Bob Frazier, 18, also of San Mateo, and revealed his intention to kill himself by driving over the Coast cliff.

An all-points bulletin was sent out for the youth, but it proved too late.

Frazier told authorities that Asbell had been working as a payee in the district and was of future college work. Both youths recently graduated from San Mateo High School and planned to enroll at College of San Mateo for the spring semester.

BROADMOOR'S critical erosion woes are evident above as Bob Buchanan, BPOA president, and Donald Williams, erosion and drainage committee chairman, examine the damage on the slope below Westmoor High at Edgemoor road. Association, city and school district officials came up with a temporary solution early last week with the proposal to construct a quarter-mile, $2500 gutter along the road to Junipero Serra. If all parties agree, costs will be shared by the city, school district and county. Meanwhile, association leaders met with the county engineer Friday and discussed setting up an assessment district to meet Broadmoor's biggest headache—drainage. Buchanan told the TIMES his group will ask bids from engineers to determine costs of a survey for the proposed district. Three major sections need immediate attention: (1) An additional line from 87th and Washington into Westlake. (2) Drainage from Westmoor site to Sweetwood avenue. (3) Construction of a larger drain from Ellis and Wildwood into Westlake.

WESTLAKE MURDER-SUICIDE

Wounded Westlake Nurse 'Better' After Shooting

Ruth Kepp, 53-year-old Westlake nurse who witnessed the slaying of her doctor and suicide of her estranged husband last Wednesday was reported "a lot better" today by attendants at Children's hospital.

Mrs. Kepp was wounded in the arm by her husband, Mike, after he had shot and killed Dr. Robert de Mailly, for whom Mrs. Kepp worked as a receptionist at the Westlake Medical Building.

Private funeral services for Kepp, 64, were held Saturday morning from Halsted & Co. in San Francisco. He was buried Tuesday morning at Woodlawn Memorial park.

Private rites for the slain doctor were held Thursday from N. Gray & Co. in San Francisco.

Although Mrs. Kepp is still not being allowed visitors, attendants said her mental and physical condition is "much better." She was in a state of severe shock for several days following the tragic slaying of the 39-year-old obstetrician and the suicide of her husband.

She suffered a wound in the upper right arm and chest. She will probably be confined to the hospital for "at least" three more weeks, a hospital spokesman said.

Mrs. Kepp and her husband, a van and storage company Westlake representative at 16 Park Plaza drive, were well known in the Westlake area. Mrs. Kepp had served as Dr. de Mailly's receptionist since he opened offices here in 1951. Kepp had been living in a Westlake apartment since his separation from his wife.

On November 24 he attempted suicide and in mid-December reportedly gave his wife a severe beating.

Because of the separation and fear of her husband, Mrs. Kepp had been living at the Pacific Heights home of the de Mailly family.

Francis Summons

Candidates For Maritime Academy

Assemblyman Louis Francis of the 25th District today announced that a competitive examination for youths who wish to become his nominees for admission to the California Maritime Academy will be held in Vallejo at 8 a.m. on March 16.

Those who find it inconvenient to take this exam at the Academy may take the college entrance board scholastic aptitude test at the nearest examination center on the same date.

Each state senator and state assemblyman representing an odd-numbered district may nominate one man from his district for the Academy this year.

All applicants must, at the time of admission in August this year, be high school graduates, unmarried, 17 years of age but not over 23 (except in the case of veterans who may enter up to the age of 27), and meet certain physical and mental requirements.

The state-operated California Maritime Academy is located on Carquinez Strait, Vallejo, at the head of San Francisco Bay. The Academy program provides in three years approximately the same education as the normal four-year college. Graduates receive B.S. degrees in either nautical science or science of marine engineering.

Application to take the examination should be made to Assemblyman Francis, 301 West 20th Avenue, San Mateo, or at Room 4116, State Capitol, Sacramento, on or before February 12.

Further information may be obtained by writing to the superintendent of the California Maritime Academy.

Daly City To Seek County Aid In Plea For More Fine Money

Meeting with South San Francisco officials Monday, Daly City representatives were urged to present their request for a larger share of municipal court revenue to the county board of supervisors.

South San Francisco suggested that Daly City adopt a resolution asking the board of supervisors to act favorably on Daly City's request for active support on state legislation to amend the method of distributing court fines and forfeitures to cities.

The municipal court now withholds 24 percent of Daly City's fine money. Councilman Del Wilson, who was present at Monday's meeting, has urged that this figure be lowered to 12 percent, in keeping with the share kept from other north Peninsula cities.

Colma Council Delays Sales Tax Adoption

Colma town council postponed their special sales tax meeting Wednesday night, deciding to take up the matter at their February 13 regular meeting instead.

LIST 'SNOWBALLS' FOR ENTRIES IN B'MOOR PARADE

Plans for the Scout Sunday Parade on February 10, at 1:30 p.m. in Broadmoor are moving along in high gear. The impressive list of organizations who are to take part in this colorful event is increasing daily. Military bands, drill teams, police and firemen, Indian Dancers, and Jobs Daughters will all combine to provide a spectacular escort for all Scout Units.

The Sixth Army Band, C. W. O. Louis Ferraro, commanding officer and band leader. The Sixth Army Pipe Band, N.C.O. under direction of Sergeant Richard Kirkland, the Twelfth Naval District Band, directed by W. O. Harold E. Huddleston, the Honor Guard Platoon of the Pacific Reserve Fleet, the U. S. Marine Department of the Pacific Band, and The Presidians, the Sixth Army Honor Guard Precision Drill Team have all announced their intentions of participating in this year's Scout Parade. These military groups have won numerous awards and trophies in judged competitions, and the opportunity to view so much outstanding talent should not be missed.

The 740th A.A.A. Battery from the Presidio of San Francisco will parade one of its top defensive weapons, the famous "NIKE," for all to see.

The Jobs Daughters Drill Team from Broadmoor will perform, the Colma Fire Dept. and the Broadmoor police will be there with their equipment and the American Legion will have its renowned Forty and Eight Engine on hand.

All Indian Guides from Broadmoor and San Francisco Longhorns are going to appear to add to the color of the event.

The local Scouts will have full representation with Cub Packs 84, 259, 283, from Broadmoor and 248 from Westlake in attendance. Troops 84 and 129 as well as the Explorers of 84 and 129 are also turning out.

The Girl Scouts will also be out in full force with some 23 units.

DISASTER COUNCIL URGES EDUCATION CAMPAIGN ON C. D.

An educational campaign to inform residents how to best protect themselves in time of attack or disaster was called for Monday night by the Daly City civil disaster council.

Councilman Michael De Bernardi agreed to take responsibility for setting up the program. He said he public meeting on civil defense would be held within 30 days.

In other action the disaster council heard reports from each of the division heads: Chief Elmer Kennedy, fire; Otis Calhoun, public works; and Roy Foster, communications.

The council voted to ask the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Co. to provide a representative to serve as co-chairman of communications with Foster.

Ocean Shore RR Appeals Decision On Right Of Way

As expected, the Ocean Shore Railway last week entered motion to appeal Superior Judge Louis Dematteis decision declaring their railroad right of way through Daly City abandoned.

Litigation on the defunct railroad's right of way, which has extended through three decades, is now expected to linger on for at least another year.

Judge Dematteis denied the railroad's motion for a new trial. The appeal will go to the district court of appeals.

Judge Dematteis decision had the effect of granting Henry Doelger, the Roman Catholic church, and City of Daly City, full title to lands which the railroad claimed were theirs under right of way status.

SF STATE PROF SETS ANOTHER MUSIC, ART TOUR OF EUROPE

San Francisco State College's traveling professor, Dr. Sterling Wheelwright, will lead another music and art travel tour to Europe this summer, it was announced today.

Dr. Wheelwright, professor of music and humanities, has led such tours for the past five years. He also is well known in the Bay Area as a lecturer and photographer.

Departing from the usual sight-seeing trip, Dr. Wheelwright's group will visit the art and musical festivals of Western Europe, meet festival artists, attend special recitals arranged especially for them, and spend considerable time studying the cultural history of each of the countries.

Last summer, for example, the group was entertained in the Paris city hall and at the organ gallery of Notre Dame.

Limited to between 20 and 25 adult members, this year's party will leave New York City on June 29, flying directly to Paris, Nice and Rome and continuing for a total of 46 days by private motor-coach through Italy, Switzerland, Austria, Germany, Holland and England. Members of the party may enroll with the college as auditors or for six units of credit.

A list of the festivals to which visits are scheduled and other information can be obtained from Dr. Wheelwright at San Francisco State College, 1600 Holloway avenue.

Classes will be held two mornings a week in the War Memorial Building. Instruction is free.

League-Leading Jeff Cagers Spot Easy Prey In Warriors

Unbeaten Gaels, Rec Quint Gear For Playoff Showdown

St. Gabriel's galloping Gaels and the Rec Department cagers are top-heavy choices to battle for the Class A City Park and Recreation League championship as playoffs begin this Saturday morning at Community Center.

The Gaels, finishing with a 7-0 plate by dumping BYA last week, tangle with St. James in the play-off opener, while the second place Rec five engages OLPH. The showdown is a single elimination affair, with the exception that the Gaels will be eligible for the finale even if they lose to St. James.

St. Gabriel's had no trouble burying the Broadmoor entry Saturday by a 59-31 count. The Rec lads, meanwhile, broke the league high team scoring mark for the third straight week by battering Sacred Heart, 82-58.

Sonny Stroller, perhaps the best in the loop, dynamited the Rec attack with 25 points. He connected for 12 field goals and one charity toss. Other Rec players running wild were Barry Krohn, 18 points, Steve Anderson, 15, Hilton Gillory, 13, and George Klaus, 11. Elsbree Douglass tossed in 22 for the losers.

St. James cinched third place with a 46-26 romp over St. Michael's. Both Jim Raby and Ivan Vegvary got 16 points for winners.

OLPH gained the playoffs by whipping Holy Angels, 32-16, in the other Class A tilt.

In Class B action, St. Gabriel's smeared Sacred Heart, 44-14, and Westview won its third game by clipping OLPH, 23-15. Don Douler paced the Gael Babes with 12 points.

St. Stephen's rules the Class B circuit with a 6-0 mark.

Jefferson's icy-veined varsity cagers, the "Sneak By Kids" of the year, go for their sixth straight North PAL win this Friday night when they invade South City to duel the punchless Warriors. First game tipoff is 7:30 o'clock.

Riding high and mighty towards the title, the Tribe expects a breeze this time. South City (1-4) figures to be welcome relief after the Tribe's last two torrid games.

Thrillers Again
Coach Mike Orlich's amazing five slipped past tough Carlmont last Friday, 50-49, and continued their comethrough habit Tuesday by clipping rugged Capuchino, 46-44. Both tilts gave Orlich fits, but his boys prevailed and they don't know the meaning of quit.

Orlich still has his fingers crossed as the second round of play opens next week. Though victorious, the locals have won three of their games by the margins of two points and a fourth by one point. Biggest blocks in Jeff's path are Burlingame (4-1) and Carlmont (3-2).

Mike remembers too well how his cagers hit the skids last year after leading midway through the campaign with a 5-0 mark. But his current edition seems to have it when it counts, and if they don't die of heart failure, who knows?

Mr. Pottinger

Indian sparkplug Larry Pottinger saved the Carlmont tilt Friday. His jump shot with 38 seconds left put Jeff ahead, 48-47. Larry then added two free throws to cinch the verdict. He wound up with 13 points. Bob Comstock potted 12 and Tom Cloutier 10.

Jeff to a 26-19 halftime lead. Carlmont inched back and went ahead 35-34 as the third quarter opened.

Both teams hit 17 of 59 field goal attempts. The Scots bagged 15 of 26 free throws, Jeff 16 for 32.

The Indian lightweights notched victory number three in the opener, 47-38. Wayne Lewis continued his deadly barrage with 21 points. The Tribe led at intermission, 22-16.

Comstock Hero
Comstock's shot from the corner in the overtime stanza killed Capuchino. Gary Ryan saved the day for his mates by tying it up 44-44 on a free throw just before the buzzer.

Jeff nursed a 23-18 halftime edge, and it was all knotted up 32-32 at the end of the third quarter.

Pottinger's 14 points featured the conquest. He leads the North PAL scoring race with 75 points, averaging 15 a game. Cloutier trailed the southpaw sharpshooter with 12, followed by Comstock's 8. Cap's 6-7 pivot, Gary Estabrook, led his team with 12.

Howren Hurt
Steve Mezzera's 30's were overwhelmed by the Caps, 68-42. Loss of center Ernie Howren via an ankle injury in the second quarter fizzled the Indian offense. Wayne Lewis, however, blasted away as usual, tallying 13 points. He also heads North PAL pointmakers with 79 points, far in front of his nearest competitor.

Jeff's cagers travel to San Mateo next Tuesday. They engage Burlingame here next Friday night. Orlich's squad plastered the Bearcats, 65-45, but had to go all out to trim the Panthers, 45-43.
